

Separating Variables

Teachers note: this is not a requirement of the standard, but it does round out the discussion nicely.

One of the things you can do to round out the discussion is separate out the data by a categorical variable to see if this is affecting the trend. You do this by choosing a variable in the 'Subset' section on NZGrapher. This gives the output on the right.

